

NOTES AND NEWS

---

Redeemer Renaissance After-School Program

February 27, 2009

Field Trip April 3rd

Friday, April 3rd is a teacher professional day. Redeemer Renaissance will be open from 8:00 AM until 6:15 PM and visiting the Steven F. Udvar-Hazy Center near Washington Dulles International Airport. Please pick up a Permission Slip today. Permission slips should be completed and returned by March 5th.

Spring Break Camp

We are thrilled to be able to proceed with the Spring Break Camp.

Registration packets are available. If your child/children are attending, please return the packet and payment by March 5th. The camp schedule will be as follows:

- Monday Morning: Visit to National Zoo
Monday Afternoon: Animal Sculptures
- Tuesday Morning: Visit to Hidden Oaks Nature Center with Program and Crafts about Woodland Indians in the 1600s
Tuesday Afternoon: Making Dream Catchers
- Wednesday Morning: Visit to Claude Moore Farm
Wednesday Afternoon: Building Dish Gardens
- Thursday Morning: Visit the National Building Museum where children will have an opportunity to design their own city
Thursday Afternoon: Painting Bird Houses and Easter Egg Hunt

Summer Camp

As you know, we are not planning to be open this summer. If you are looking for a summer camp, you might want to check out Simply Spare Time in the Springhill area:

<http://www.simplysparetime.org/index-2.html>

or Chesterbrook Methodist:

http://www.chesterbrookumc.org/child\_care.html

FCPS Bell Schedule

Redeemer Renaissance is aware that the Bell Schedules for the elementary schools in Fairfax County may be changing for next year. We will make changes to our hours of operation as necessary based on the bell schedules

Security Alert!

For security reasons we are trying to keep the entrance locked. Ring the bell to gain entrance. If no one answers the doorbell, please call 703-343-3784. We realize this may be inconvenient, but it is for the safety of your children.