

NOTES AND NEWS

Redeemer Renaissance After-School Program

March 20, 2009

The Great American Bakesale

Redeemer Renaissance After-School Program will be participating in Share Our

Strength's Great American Bake Sale. Our Bake Sale will take place on April 1st from 5:00 PM until 7:00 PM just inside Redeemer's Chain Bridge Rd. entrance. All of our baked goods will be prepared by the children in the after-school program.

You can also contribute by going to <http://join.strength.org/goto/rresp>. 100% of the money earned goes to help end childhood hunger.

Summer Camp

As you know, we are not planning to be open this summer. If you are looking for a summer camp, you might want to check out Simply Spare Time in the Springhill area or Chesterbrook Methodist.

FCPS Bell Schedule

The Fairfax County School Board voted last night to make NO changes in the bell schedule for next year. The hours of Redeemer Renaissance will, therefore, remain the same.

Oobleck

On Tuesday, Mr. Jesse made Redeemer Renaissance a batch of Oobleck. Oobleck is an example of a non-Newtonian fluid, having properties of both a solid and a liquid. To make Oobleck at home, follow the recipe below.

- 1 1/2 C. Corn Starch
- 1 C. Water
- Food Color (optional)

Combine the water and food color; gently mix with the cornstarch. When compressed, the mixture will appear dry and solid, however it also flows like a smooth liquid.
