Redeemer Renaissance After-School Program

Friday, October 2, 2009

Week In Review

On Monday, the children made mini-pizzas which were later served for snack. On Tuesday, they played games with our parachute. On Wednesday, children made posters for the food drive. On Thursday and Friday, they did activities with proverbs and other wise sayings.

Music Lessons

There is still space in the schedules of the guitar, cello, bass, and trumpet teachers.

Fire Prevention Week

Fire Prevention Week is October 4th, through October 10th. On Monday, October 5th, Redeemer Renaissance will be visited by the McLean Fire Department.

Community Service

Thank you for your donations of school supplies and for your contributions to the food drive.

The school supplies will be sent to the National Center for Children and Families. Donations to the food drive go directly to needy families identified by Fairfax County.

Don't forget to return the registration forms and permission slips for the Help-The-Homeless Mini-Walk by Monday, October 5th. The beneficiary for our Mini-Walk will be the National Center for Children and Families.

Any donation to our Mini-Walk is appreciated. Should you choose to make a gift, you can drop it in the Redeemer Renaissance mailbox. Checks should be made payable to the Redeemer After-School Program with Mini-Walk in the memo line.
