Redeemer Renaissance After-School Program

Friday, January 15th, 2010

Week In Review

On Monday, the Renaissance kids made door hangers

On Tuesday, they made pinecone bird feeders.

Wednesday, the children made snow scenes with pen and water color. On Thursday, they made an "I Have A Dream" banner which you can see in Fellowship Hall. On Friday, the children were given art supplies with which they could do as they wished.

Snow Season

Please review the Inclement Weather Policy on page 5 of your Handbook. The Handbook can be found at <http://afterschool.redeemermclean.org/handbook/Handbook.pdf>

Re-Enrollment Continues

If you wish to re-enroll for the 2010-2011 school year and have not, please do so right away.

Aid for Haiti

If you are looking for organizations that are providing aid to Haiti, here are some suggestions. Lutheran World Relief: <http://www.lwr.org>

January Community Service

January 18th is a National Day of Service in honor of Martin Luther King Day. The Fairfax County Park Authority has planned 2 service events for January 18th. Claude Moore Farm will also be hosting family volunteer activities on Martin Luther King Day.

Did you know that that you can earn a free day at Walt Disney World by performing community service for selected organizations? Claude Moore Farm is one of the organizations. It is necessary to sign up on the Disney web site. The links to all of the above activities are on our web site, <http://afterschool.redeemermclean.org>.

The 40 days following January 18th are the 40 Days of Peace. During that time, Redeemer Renaissance will donate the proceeds from the Peace Mug Sales to Operation Military Kids.
